Members Receive:

A subscription to the monthly, online Peer Bulletin—an independent, international, subscriber-funded, advertising- and promotion-free magazine. Our Editorial Policy and Editorial Advisory Board believes in nurturing the human spirit by drawing upon the wisdom and practices of many traditions, including our subscribers and other contributors all of whom are making a difference in the fields of peer assistance, mentoring and coaching.

The content of our magazine bridges the gap between science and art as well as the gap between thinking and doing. We offer our readers the opportunity to connect with an international network of practitioners, writers and researchers who are dedicated to authenticity, inspiration, cooperation, respect, positive regard, hope, compassion, and equality throughout the world.

Members also receive no cost, one-on-one consultation, a guarantee that their initial membership fee never increases, discounts on publications and workshops, free books in exchange for a review, a free membership after 10 years of continuous membership, and other benefits, including membership credit for submission of articles that become published in the magazine.

Membership fees are available at www.peer.ca/PRN.html or by calling 1.800.567.3700 (in Canada and the U.S.A.) or 1.250.595.3503 (International), or by email: peerbulletin@peer.ca Discounts are available for two-year subscriptions. Testimonials available upon request.
